numerous other civic and community groups.

Born in Baltimore, Mrs. Holub has lived for thirty years at the same address, 2634 East Ashland avenue, and was educated in Baltimore public schools. She is the mother of one son.

Mrs. Holub favors Federal aid to education and wants the State to do its "fair share." She favors a "more exacting method" of collecting the sales tax. In the city's police courts she wants legally-trained magistrates but wants them appointed, not elected.
